

Unit 1 Test Study Guide: The Land of California

1. Understand about lines of longitude and latitude, Tropics of Capricorn and Cancer and the different hemispheres.
2. Know where California is located in relationship to the rest of the world.
3. Know about California's four natural regions and their major cities, industries, climates, and features.
4. Understand how the north and south poles are alike and different.
5. Know how settlers were able to come to California and the different means of transportation.
6. Know about the different modes of modern transportation.
7. Describe the difference between the architecture in Santa Barbara and the architecture in major urban cities.
8. Understand and know in which regions the majority of the people of California live and why?
9. Know what a compass rose is and what the cardinal directions are.
10. Why do few people settle in the mountains or deserts?